AUGUST 2016

EDITOR: LOUIS R. AVALLONE

VOLUME 22, EDITION 8

Tell Your Story: Don't Let Them Re-Write Who We Are

THIS MONTH'S MEETING

Our guest speaker for this month's luncheon at 12 noon on Tuesday, August 2, 2016 at the Wyndam Garden Hotel on E. 70th Street will be candidate for the 4th Congressional District, Elbert Guillory.

Former State Senator Elbert Lee Guillory is a candidate for Congress in Louisiana's Fourth Congressional District. Originally elected as a Democrat, Senator Guillory made national news by switching to the Republican Party in June of 2013. Guillory articulated why he chose to become a Republican in a video that went viral online, garnering him national media attention. "America is at an important crossroads," said Guillory. "Americans must make a decision to embrace personal freedoms, free market, capitalism, and basic American values or continue this errant journey toward European-style nanny state collectivism," added Guillory. "In Congress, I will be a voice for liberty. We have a duty to preserve America."

Elbert Guillory completed nearly a decade long career as a Louisiana State Legislator. Guillory completed his service to Louisiana as a State

Senator after previously serving in the State House. Guillory is 100% pro-Life, a champion for the 2nd Amendment, and played a vital role in Gov. Jindal's sweeping School Choice Reforms in 2012. In 2015 he was the only member of the State Senate who received an "A" from the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry. He was inducted into the Louisiana Justice Hall of Fame for his work on justice reform. Senator Guillory believes in a strong national defense and that radical Islam must be confronted and defeated. He is a free market Republican who believes that lower taxes and less regulation is the only path to job creation and a growing economy.

A Navy Veteran, Senator Guillory has practiced law for four decades. He lives and works in Opelousas.

Join us Tuesday and let's visit. Reservations not required. Eating is $13 and listening is free.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Fellow Republicans,

As I watched the Democratic convention in Philadelphia, I was struck by the sophisticated level of fiction writing that was exhibited by so many speakers, from Michelle Obama to Joe Biden, and from Bill Clinton to the President himself, and of course, Hillary.

Prolific author, Tom Clancy, once said the only difference between good fiction writing and reality is that fiction has to make sense. Well, listening to the Democrat National Convention this week, and especially President Obama's address to the delegates, we are sadly reminded of how much good fiction writing has truly deteriorated in our country — because none of the speeches made any sense. I found wishing that President Obama had been the kind of president that he sounded like in his speech to the convention.

Sowing division in our country is part and parcel of the Democratic Party's "business" model for over 150 years. And this year's campaign for president, if their convention in Philadelphia is any indication, will be perhaps the most divisive. I predict the media will be utilized in more ways than ever before for political purposes, and in most cases won't even pretend to be objective.

Take for example the narrative that is being written about Donald Trump, alleging he is racist, and suggesting that some Trump's supporters, like David Duke, is evidence. Nancy Pelosi even said that it is white, non-college educated men who support Trump and vote "against their own economic interests because of guns, because of gays, and because of God."

It's deceptive, and distracting, but it's designed that way, and this is the history of the Democrat Party. Remember, it was the Democrat Party's tireless efforts to preserve and defend slavery that caused so many in Congress to form a new political party to abolish slavery, the "Republicans". By 1861, the Republicans had elected their first president, Abraham Lincoln, and following the Civil War that ensued over this issue, slavery was ended. Racist groups, such as the KKK were, in fact, supported by the Democrat Party, and later defended by numerous government officials, including President Woodrow Wilson.

In fact, the 14th Amendment, giving full citizenship to freed slaves, passed in 1868 with 0% Democrat support in Congress. That's 0%. Not one Democrat supported the amendment. The 15th Amendment, giving freed slaves the right to vote, passed in 1870 with 0% Democrat support in Congress. Again, that is 0% Democrat support.

We will continue to hear this narrative about Donald Trump and how certain groups support him, and how that must logically transfer the beliefs of those groups onto Donald Trump. Don't believe the story without checking the facts. The New Black Panthers support President Obama. Should we attribute that group's beliefs to the President?

And just for the record, Roger Villere, chairman of the Republican Party of Louisiana, issued the following statement regarding news that David Duke is running for public office:

"The Republican Party opposes, in the strongest possible terms, David Duke's candidacy for any public office. David Duke is a convicted felon and a hate-filled fraud who does not embody the values of the Republican Party. The Party of Lincoln and Reagan is one that recognizes the inherent value of every human life, regardless of age, religion or race. David Duke's history of hate marks a dark stain on Louisiana's past and has no place in our current conversation. The Republican Party of Louisiana will play an active role in opposing David Duke's candidacy."

After all, when was the last time the Democrat Party issued a statement like that regarding political activists, calling themselves Democrats, who also call for justice through violence and hate of those with whom they disagree, or by intimidation at the voting booths?

In closing, and as always, please consider making a contribution to the Caddo Republican PEC, or to volunteer your time. Contributions of any amount may be made by mailing a check to: Caddo RPEC, 1941-C East 70th Street, Shreveport, LA 71105 or by clicking the following link to contribute by credit or debit card, <http://bit.ly/CaddoRPEC> (but you don't need a Paypal account to contribute online).
